the heart of Newcastle remained firm and stedfast to the great principles of Truth and Justice.

We have a charming American Lady here the wife of an American Consul Mr. McChesney who has spent much pleasant time with her married daughter in Germany, she is greatly anticipating seeing you. What a pleasure it would have been to me to attend the breakfast tomorrow morning —

With all love in which my family join your affec.te friend

John Mawson

John Mawson, June 4th 1857.

on behalf of his oppressed and down trodden people - what hath God wrought. a ——

Will you say when we are likely to have the pleasure of seeing you here to keep your promise made two years ago to visit us, my wife and family all send their hearty greetings and will be rejoiced to have you here -

You will have a sincere welcome in our town and I am delighted to tell you that in the great struggle your hand, among all these there are none whose hearts beat with a truer deeper sympathy than mine

and the members of my family, and we do very sincerely hope we shall have the intense pleasure of seeing you at our fireside to talk over old times, to rejoice with you at the result of your life's labours, and to praise God
for the marvellous wonders he has accomplished
by your instrumentality

Ashfield
Saltwell
Gateshead
June 21-1867

My dear Fisher

Welcome,
welcome, welcome
once more to old England, how many thousands of warm hearts will beat with joy at the thought of once more seeing your genial face, hearing your voice and greeting